Privacy Policy

Gt.Eccleston Agricultural Society Ltd. are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy.

The policy sets out the basis on which any personal data we collect from you, that you provide to us or that we may receive from others about you, will be processed by us. It includes data that we hold electronically and in paper files. When booking a trade stand or entry to compete at Gt.Eccleston Show, we may need to share your data with relevant regulatory and similar bodies. For instance, if there is a breed society requirement for a class, your details may need to be verified by them.

We are required to provide you with the information under the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) which comes into force on the 25th May 2018.

We will process data to deliver the services Gt.Eccleston Agricultural Society Ltd. provides to you. The retention of data will be held as necessary when we have a legal obligation or other legitimate reason for doing so.

You have the right to know what information we hold about you.

You have the right to have any information we hold about you corrected if it is inaccurate or incomplete.

You have the right to request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for us to continue to hold it.

You have the right to restrict processing of your data in certain circumstances, such as when there is a question over the way in which we are using it.

You have the right to obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes.

You have the right to object to our processing of your personal data on the basis of legitimate interest and direct marketing.

We will stop processing your data on the basis of legitimate interest unless there are compelling legitimate grounds for us to continue

We will stop any processing of your data for direct marketing as soon as we receive an objection.

If you are not satisfied, you have the right to refer the matter to Information Commissioner at Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire SK9 5AF
